VII. VICE-PRESIDENTS

It is hereby declared that the Vice-presidents of the Society as at 1.4.1986 shall each retain for life the status conferred upon them by the Society as voting members of the Committee and paragraph III 1(i) shall be amended accordingly. For the avoidance of doubt, it is further declared that any Vice-president elected to be President shall retain his/her voting rights on the Committee.

VIII. ALTERATIONS TO THE CONSTITUTION:

1. Alterations to this constitution must receive the assent of two-thirds of the members present and voting at a General Meeting. A resolution for the alteration of the constitution must be received by the Secretary of the Society at least 21 days before the meeting at which the resolution is to be brought forward. At least 14 Days notice of such a meeting must be given by the Secretary to the membership and must include notice of the alteration proposed: Provided that no alteration to the clause (objects); clause (Dissolution), or this clause shall take effect until approval in writing of the Charity Commissioners or other authority having charitable jurisdiction shall have been obtained, and no alteration shall be made which would have the effect of causing the Society to cease to be a charity in law.
2. Only the motions submitted in advance as prescribed in the above paragraph shall be discussed at the Meeting. An amendment may not be moved to alter the meaning of the motion in question.
3. The Society may be dissolved by a Resolution passed by a two-third majority of those present and voting at a Special General Meeting convened for the purpose of which 21 days' notice shall have been given (to the members). Such resolution may give instructions for the disposal of any assets held by, or in the name of, the Society, provided that if any property remains after the satisfaction of all debts and liabilities, such property shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Society, but shall be given, or transferred, to such other charitable institution, or institutions, having objects similar to some, or all, of the objects of the Society as the Society may determine and if, and in so far, as effect cannot be given to this provision, then to some other charitable purpose.
